

BERGEN CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL
CATHOLIC. GENTLEMEN. LEADERS.

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Mrs. Elisabeth Walter
Director of College Counseling
ewalter@bergencatholic.org
(201) 261-1844, ext.138

BERGEN CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL TO PROVIDE ITS STUDENTS & FACULTY WITH RESOURCES FROM THE PRINCETON REVIEW

Agreement to Provide SAT Test Prep and College Planning Resources, as well as Teacher-to-Teacher Training

ORADELL, NJ / December 22, 2020 / -- Bergen Catholic High School, a private four-year college preparatory school for young men in Oradell, NJ, has announced an agreement with The Princeton Review®, one of the nation's best-known education services companies, that will provide the school's students and faculty with access to many of the company's most popular and successful SAT® and college preparatory resources.

Under the terms of the recently signed agreement, Bergen Catholic High School (BCHS) students will have access to a wide range of digital and print resources from The Princeton Review for SAT test preparation. BCHS students will receive a selection of The Princeton Review's SAT course books, be able to take as many as four of The Princeton Review's practice SAT tests with diagnostic reviews, and have a full year of access to the company's online student portal. The students will also have access to curated college planning resources from The Princeton Review to research colleges and make informed decisions about their college selections and school applications.

Members of BCHS's faculty will receive professional development resources from The Princeton Review as part of the agreement. The Princeton Review's test prep experts will conduct Teacher-to-Teacher training sessions on the company's instructional techniques and time-tested methodologies to help students succeed on standardized tests.

"Bergen Catholic High School is thrilled to partner with The Princeton Review, which is the finest provider of standardized test preparation strategies and materials. I am confident that our students will benefit greatly from this collaboration as will our faculty who will find great instructional value in the variety of resources that The Princeton Review will provide them. This is an exciting opportunity for Bergen Catholic High School." Timothy McElhinney, Principal of Bergen Catholic High School.

Said Michael Leaser, Executive Director of Partnerships, Northeast Region, from The Princeton Review, "We have long had high regard for Bergen Catholic High School and its stellar academic program, extracurricular offerings, and dedication to its students. In many ways, BCHS feels like family to us. We have helped many alumni get into their dream colleges over the years, and we count some BCHS graduates among our own outstanding staffers. We are truly pleased to partner with the school in this innovative collaboration to help students research, gain admission to, and succeed at their best-fit colleges."

BERGEN CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

CATHOLIC. GENTLEMEN. LEADERS.

About Bergen Catholic High School

BERGEN CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

Bergen Catholic High School is a private, all-boys high school founded in 1955 by the Edmund Rice Christian Brothers and continues to be guided by The Essential Elements of an Edmund Rice Christian Brother Education. It is located in Oradell, NJ, which is approximately ten miles from New York City. Bergen Catholic High School is fully-accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools. Approximately 700 young men attend Bergen Catholic. While most students live in New Jersey, students also come from New York City, Rockland County, NY, Orange County, NY, Westchester County, NY as well as parts of Connecticut. Enrollment is selective and based on a competitive high school entrance examination, academic records and recommendations. For more information, visit www.bergencatholic.org. Follow Bergen Catholic High School on Twitter (@bergencatholic) and Instagram (@bergencatholichighschool).

About The Princeton Review

The Princeton Review is a leading tutoring, test prep, and college admission services company. Every year, it helps millions of college- and graduate school-bound students achieve their education and career goals through online and in-person courses delivered by a network of more than 4,000 teachers and tutors, online resources, and its more than 150 print and digital books published by Penguin Random House. The company's Tutor.com brand is one of the largest online tutoring services in the U.S. It comprises a community of thousands of tutors who have delivered more than 19 million one-to-one tutoring sessions. The Princeton Review is headquartered in New York, NY. The Princeton Review is not affiliated with Princeton University. For more information, visit PrincetonReview.com and the company's Media Center. Follow the company on Twitter (@ThePrincetonRev) and Instagram (@theprincetonreview).

SAT® is a trademark registered by the College Board, which is not affiliated with, and does not endorse this product.