THIS WEEK IN BERGEN CATHOLIC SPORTS

AND YOU DIDN'T THINK
ANYTHING GOOD
WAS HAPPENING?!?

Crusader Sports Making News

November 24 – Oradell, NJ – Great things are happening nation-wide as Crusaders make news around the country in collegiate athletics and make an impact locally, supporting important causes. Here’s a little of what’s happening as we await the start of the winter season (officially Friday night at the Ice House – HOCKEY VS. DELBARTON!!!)

Crusader Baseball Helping to Feed Those Most in Need

Below are members of the Crusader Baseball team and Coach Muggeo, pitching in at Helping Hands Food Pantry in Rochelle Park.

Crusader Swimmers Support Devils’ Fight Against Cancer

The Crusader Swimmers join their IHA peers, making a program presence at the Prudential Center as the Devils WIN and fight Cancer this month.

2021 Lacrosse Pair Commit

Junior LSM, Michael Garchitorena and Junior Attackman, Brenden Kelly have some big news this week! Garchitorena committed to continuing his education and playing lacrosse at Yale University. He follows Brendan Mackie and Doug Pula, who are recently graduated after winning a national championship and reaching two NCAA Final Fours.

Kelly will be attending Penn State University. The Nitanny Lions spent much of the 2019 season ranked #1 in the nation and ultimately reaching the NCAA Final Four. Brenden is the first Crusader lacrosse player going on to play in Happy Valley.

Brenden and Michael join classmate, George Talarico, who committed earlier this fall to continue his education at Bucknell. He will play for the Bison where brothers, Alec and Travis played.

Congratulations to Coach Kelly and the entire Crusader Lacrosse program on their continued exceptional college placement of student athletes!

BC Faculty Members Run Philly Marathon Weekend

Congratulations to Ms. Nemeth, Mr. Powers and Mr. Ruceretto for running in this week’s Philadelphia Marathon. A number of BC alumni including George Kocher also ran in the event (according to my best FB research). We, are however, especially proud of our role models and colleagues for their efforts as they donned their Kyle’s Team shirts!

Feaster Defensive POY for Second Straight Year

BC Alumnus, Frankie Feaster, returns for his senior year and is dominating once again. He was named first team Centennial Conference and Defensive Player of the Year once again. The 11-0 Mules advanced in the NCAA Tournament yesterday with a victory over MIT.

Meanwhile, Rahmir Johnson hit paydirt for the first time in his collegiate career. The freshman running back scored on a 1 yard run after carrying the ball a team-high 18 times for 55 yards.

Big News from TN and NE!

Quarterback, Jarret Guarantano had a BIG day, passing for over 400 yards as his Volunteers defeated Missouri this weekend.

Meanwhile, former Crusader multi-sport star, Rahmir Johnson led the Cornhuskers in carries. Rahmir rushed 18 times for 55 yards and his first career touchdown! Congratulations! The true freshman is making an impact right away in Lincoln!

TOUCHDOWN, @rahmir_johnson.

First career score for the freshman RB.

44-0, 2:21 remaining in the third.

Shane Griffith CHAMPION!

Crusader Wrestling Alumni make even more news as Stanford's Shane Griffith continued his unbeaten streak, winning the Roadrunner Tournament.

.@shanegriffith7 is your champion at 165 pounds after pinning Adam Kemp (Fresno State) in 6:41 in the finals! Griffith finished the tournament with three falls and a major decision, and is now 11-0 on the season 🏆.
